Monterey Fishing Fleet

Hello Again,

Not much new going on here. The other day was the worst day I have had here. We had a real wind and we had to stand around for about 12 hrs. The wind blows off the ocean here, and is colder than anything I know. If I live through all of this, I should be real 'tough'. I am getting a sore throat again, and I can't get any aspirin until tonight. Five of the guys from this Platoon are in the Hospital and three with Pneumonia. sp? This is the worst part of the deal down here. I'll tell you all about it when I get home.

My tendon (tendonitis) is getting a little better. I know about 20 guys who have it. It is supposed to get better with exercise. I can't wear regular shoes, though. I did today and my foot gave way under me. It was a pretty sharp pain and I had to hop on one foot back to the barracks. I am using Ben Gay, which helps relieve the pain. The funny thing is it doesn't hurt with my boots anymore. Oh well, only 4 wks. left here and half my troubles will be over. I'm still not complaing, but I'm bored and lonely for Elinor.

I think I will probaby take you up on this car deal. Ask Bob how much work I would have to do on the motor. We can talk about it when I get back.

The Army pays my way from here to Texas with about $120. We get out the 13th of April. If you can't come home, I'll probably come home by bus and get there Sat. night. I don't know what I'll do about going to Texas from there. I might take the train or something.

If you will be down here, let me know.

Our wedding will be the 7th so try and figure things out now. I probably won't be able to get off from Boeing so I'll take off Friday and make it a week-end honey-moon. We can take a real honey-moon later on. Oh I will be singing some songs. The wedding only comes once, and if this is what she wants, this is what I'll do. It may not turn out any good, but we will try. I know you don't want this, but we are getting married and only once, so it will have to be this way. It won't be that formal anyway. Probably won't be over 150 people and it is a real small country church. No sweat.

Write and tell about the car and things.

Love,

Jim

If you will be down then, let me know.

Our wedding will be the 7th of [illegible] [illegible] things and now I'm [illegible] [illegible] to get off from Boeing so we can take off Sunday and make it a week-end honeymoon. We can take a honeymoon later.

Everything [illegible] been going [illegible] comes [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] always. This is [illegible] we do. It may not turn out [illegible] good, but we will try. I know you don't want this, but we are getting married and only once, so it must have to be this way. It won't be that formal anyway. Probably won't be over 150 people and it is a [illegible]

Write and tell about the [illegible] things

Love
Pam
